iBid ONLINE AUCTION SERVICE

Local governmental entities in Illinois can use the State's surplus property auction website – iBid, often called the eBay® of Illinois – to dispose of their unneeded equipment.

Using the innovative online service can help municipalities reap the highest bid from more than 12,000 interested bidders around the world – as noted in the [September 2007 Illinois Municipal Review article, "Sold!" \[PDF, 79Kb\]](#)  And the fees are about half that of other online auction services.

For more information about using iBid to sell your surplus equipment, please e-mail Curtis Howard at curtis.howard@illinois.gov or call 217-558-7007.
